KONJIC

Konjic je grad i središte istoimene općine na krajnjem sjeveru planinske Hercegovine, u centralnom dijelu Bosne i Hercegovine. Grad je 1991. brojao oko 14.500, a općina blizu 45.000 stanovnika. Općinu Konjic karakteriše površina od 1400 km², po kojoj je najveća u Federaciji Bosne i Hercegovine. Bogatstvo općine su poljoprivredno i šumsko zemljište, ogromni vodeni potencijal, velike zalihe rude pirofilita, turistički kapaciteti i dr.

Konjic je atraktivan zbog bogate prirode koja u potpunosti okružuje grad. Rijeka Neretva teče kroz sam centar. Od početka 1900. godine Konjic je poznat po svom drvorezbarstvu.

Središte turističke ponude Konjica je zasigurno Boračko jezero i dolina Glavatičevo. Većina aktivnosti u prirodi kreće odavde: planinarenje, logorovanje, rafting, seoski turizam, vožnja kajacom ili kanuom, planinski biciklizam pa čak i paragliding.

Najsjeverniji grad Hercegovine nikad nije bio ni „prava Hercegovina“ niti „prava Bosna“, već nešto zaista unikatno i neponovljivo. Okupan toplim hercegovačkim suncem dočekivao je doseljenike iz raznih krajeva svijeta, pružao im udoban dom i pazio ih, hranio ih i školovao, a oni su mu vraćali svom ljubavlju koju bi utkali u građevine i gradske ulice.

Konjic is a town and center of similar commune on extreme north mountainous Herzegovina, at the central part of BiH. 14.500 inhabitants were live in Konjic in 1991., and in its similar commune at the same time was about 45.000. Konjic was placed on 1400 km², and at the same time is the biggest commune in BiH. Agricultural and forestry land, huge water potential, great reserves of mineral of pirofilit are the main titles of huge richness of his part of BiH.

Konjic is attractive far more by its abundance of natural beauty that completely surrounds the town. The Neretva River running through the centre. Since the early 1900s, Konjic has come to be known for its woodcarvers. The epicenter of the Konjic tourism offer is most certainly the area around Boračko Lake and the valley of Glavatičevo. This partial glacier lake has bungalows, a hotel and camping facilities. Most of the outdoor activities begin from this region: hiking, camping, rafting, kayaking, village tourism, canoeing, mountain biking and even paragliding.

The northernmost town of Herzegovina has never been either „true Herzegovina“ or „true Bosnia“, but something unique and genuine. Showered with warm Herzegovinian sun it welcomed settlers from all around the world, gave them nice home, took care of them, fed them and educated them and they in return gave it their love – they would install in all the buildings and streets they created.
